

SAVOR GRAND OPENINGS

FRESH ON THE SCENE

MARCH MADNESS IN MIAMI BRINGS NEW HOT SPOTS FOR BRUNCH, COCKTAILS, POKE, AND MEXICAN THAT YOU NEED TO TRY RIGHT NOW.

BY CARLA TORRES

FOR FRENCH FARE: BAKEHOUSE BRASSERIE
Menin Hospitality is at it yet again. But don't expect tacos, New York deli-style sandwiches, or the loaded fries the brand has become synonymous with. This time, chef Bernie Matz is delighting with Parisian bistro-type fare with a twist, like pastelitos with bacon, guava, and chèvre or duck confit. And those are just a few of the freshly baked goods; there's also brunch every day, including croissant French toast, crawfish beignets, wild boar chipotle Benedicts, and lemon honey Greek yogurt with roasted pears. Plus: live jazz and bottomless mimosas on weekends. 808 First St., Miami Beach, 305-434-8249; bakehouse-southbeach.com ment of Parisian pastries

bakehouse
a of the s on the urishing
g scene.

*Beach, 99;
a.com*

AND TEQUILA: THE TAVERN
You may boast y's most ars (Ted's
one of the st successful
story), and the ge-meets-
home service discotheque Craft Social Club. But for the largest selection of

F
O
S
MARC
MIAMI
BRUN
POKE
THA T

BY CARLA TORRES

comat. And those are just a few of the freshly baked goods; there's also brunch

TUCAYTA ORGANICA
You know Chris Paciello from either working out at and a slew of burritos, bowls, quesos, and of course tacos. 920 Lincoln home service discotheque Craft Social Club. But for the largest selection of

PHOTOGRAPHY BY CLAUDETTE RODRIGUEZ/ALAMY; BAKEHOUSE BRASSERIE: JEFFREY FRANK; PHOTOGRAPHY COURTESY OF TUCAYTA ORGANICA/EDDYVIGORANCA